DISPOSITION: Agenda Item #:

EVA LIMBERT

Eva Limbert worked for Monroe County for 30 years. These years have seen her through many times in her life. She worked in the Clerk's Office from June 1973 through July 1989. She then worked for the BOCC from July 1989 through April 1995. Eva then worked for the Sheriff's Department from 1995 through 2000 and the Social Services Department from March 2002 through August 2005 as Grant Coordinator, and truly an asset to Monroe County.

During all the years with Monroe County, Eva went from being a young mother with small children to seeing those children grow up, attend college and graduate to careers of their own. Eva is a very smart and talented individual. With her vast knowledge she was able to put the Grant Coordinator position on track and in ship shape condition. Eva is a very caring and dedicated person, someone who could always be counted on in times of deadlines and/or dilemmas. She was just what Monroe County needed and we are sorry to lose her. We wish her all the best in her retirement.
